A Direct Question to Candidates And an Earnest Appeal to the Voters.

To the Editor of ADVERTISER:

Some one has sent me a marked copy of last week's Advertiser, calling special attention to your most excellent editorial headed "Some of the Issues."

I want most emphatically to endorse said editorial, and to add if the candidates for legislative honors fail to answer a question like this, emphatically, one way or the other, they certainly will have it to do at Parkville.

Let me frame a question for them: Are you willing to allow the people, whom you claim to love and want to serve, the same means of ridding themselves of the dispensary, that they have of securing one?

Permit me to ask the voters of Edgefield county to consider the goodness of their ballots, and pay careful attention to the answer given to this query, and govern yourselves accordingly.

Can you afford to vote for men who would give us no chance to rid ourselves of such an infernal curse without taxing us, intimidating, yea, bribing us?

Fellow citizens, for the sake of society, for the sake of home, for the sake of your children and their posterity, for the sake of all that is sacred—and mightn't I add—for the sake of the Christ whom we claim to love and serve, be men, and vote only for clean, honest men, who are willing to aid us at least in diminishing the curse of strong drink.

We need men to represent us, strong men, clean men, christian men; men of backbone who cannot be bought by cheap liquor.

In conclusion, let me beg you to choose this day at Gilead, Red Hill, Rehoboth and all places where the candidates speak whom you will serve; if the dispensary be God serve it; but if the maker of Heaven and earth be God serve Him.

Respectfully,
D. A. T. BROWN.

JOHNSTON.

Union meeting at the Johnston Baptist church drew a large crowd and proved interesting. The appeal for money was responded to very liberally by all the churches. We hope the day is not far distant when we will hear no more appeals from Furman. Every community could and should support a college equipped for finishing the education of the boys and girls. We have never approved the plan of sending off the girls and boys just at a time when home influence and training is so very essential.

Miss Tura Werts is quite ill with appendicitis and was accompanied to Augusta hospital on Saturday last by Dr. Mobley and Messrs. Getson Werts and H. H. Crouch. It is feared an operation will be necessary.

Mrs. Charley B. Swan, accompanied by Ouida, her little girl, arrived from Texas on Saturday, and will spend several weeks visiting relatives at this place, in Augusta and at Laurens. Mrs. Swan will be remembered as Miss Aziloe Lott and nine years have elapsed since she left her native state.

Crops are looking much better here than anywhere on the road. The dry weather has damaged vegetables seriously down about Augusta. A severe hailstorm near the city completely destroyed both corn and cotton, and almost rendered a fire necessary for comfort.

Mrs. Teague Price, of Columbia, visited home last week.

Mr. T. R. Denny will leave for St. Louis in a few days.

Messrs. W. E. Moyer and James A. White returned from the Fair last week.

The Readyville Club will have their annual picnic on the 12th of August.

Misses Ellamays Allen and Ruth Cogburn attended our union services.

Mr. Dayton Toole came over Friday to greet a little stranger; that in future will prove an attractive and welcome addition to the home circle.

Rev. P. B. Grant read his resignation as pastor of the Johnston Baptist church, having accepted a call in Kentucky.

Cold Spring.

DEAR ADVERTISER: On last Wednesday Dr. Prescott gave a barbecue to his tenants and relatives and had his pastor and family also present. The meats and hash were well prepared and nicely served. After all had eaten, melons and all kind of fruit were served. Dr. Prescott regretted that he could not have all of his neighbors and friends at this "cue". All had a good time and wish for the doctor and his family many long and happy years.

J. W. PEAK.

Respectfully,
S. MCG. SIMKINS.

The early buyer will get the cream of the stock at the New York Racket Store.

We were at our old friend's, Mr. Cook Burkhalter's, to-day and he is much encouraged at the prospect of his crop. He told us that he had thirty acres in one field that would average about waist high Cuck is one of Edgefield's best farmers.

Miss Mattie Middleton, after spending a few days with relatives and friends in our town, has returned to her home at Clark's Hill.

Mr. Floy Graves and Mr. Walter Holmes have gone to Anny, Ga., to visit friends but will return for the great barbecue here next Friday.

Mr. George Johnston is finishing up his new house and hopes to move into it in the early fall.

Mr. H. H. Smith is building a large and modern barn.

Mr. J. H. Bussey has put a new yard fence around his home.

Mr. Milton Bussey visited friends at Modoc last week.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Timmerman a son.

Rev. E. T. Sengo from Greenville is quite sick at the home of Mr. T. M. Dorn, his father-in-law.

Dr. J. N. Crafton was at Rose Cottage this week to see Master Charlie Bell who is quite sick, but is much better at this writing.

A series of meetings will begin at Red Oak Grove the 1st Sunday in August. All are invited to attend.

We are off to Clark's Hill tomorrow to attend the union meeting.

Let us all remember the big barbecue to be given at Red Hill next Friday. Of course everybody will be there. Come, you will see all your kinsfolk and friends.

ROSE COTTAGE.

Morgana.

(Written for last week.)

DEAR ADVERTISER: Will pause this busy Monday morning to write you a few dots. We have had good seasons of rain within the past fortnight, and you know that means so much to our farmers.

Crops look flourishing.

Rev. J. T. Miller filled his regular appointment at Dothan yesterday. He brought his daughter, Miss Lottie, with him on Thursday, and they visited several families in our vicinity. Miss Lottie captivated us and we hope she will come again.

Protracted meeting will begin at Dothan 1st Sunday in August.

Mr. Herbert Buich and his sister, Miss Lilla, of Poverty Hill, attended service at Dothan yesterday.

Mrs. Page of Atlanta is visiting Mrs. H. H. Scott, and attended service also.

Mr. John S. Chapman, who has been quite ill in Ohio, is with his sister, Mrs. McKie Scott, to recruit his health.

Mrs. J. C. Fouché of Ninety-Six, S.C., who has been visiting her sons, Messrs. Wallace and Ed Fouché of this community, left this morning for Parkville.

Miss Ethel Hughes, of Hephzibah, Ga., made a short visit to her great-grandmother, Mrs. G. W. Thurmond, recently.

Miss Harriet Newbegin, of New York, arrived last week, on a visit to her mother, Mrs. Edw. Schmidt.

Miss Lucy Crafton returned last week from a visit to Mrs. W. H. Briggs, of Hardy, S.C.

Several of our young people met at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Thurmond last Saturday afternoon and played croquet in their lovely grove, and refreshed themselves with luscious watermelons.

Mr. J. L. Crafton of this community beats the record hatching chickens. This season he set one hen on fifteen eggs, and she hatched sixteen chicks. Can you account for that?

With continued good wishes.
